Date: March 22, 2011

The Warrenville Police Department is accepting applications for the Citizen's Police Academy

The Citizen's Police Academy is again being offered by the Warrenville Police Department to its City's residents. If you, or someone you know, is interested in becoming a police officer, or just want to know more about how your local police perform their duties, then this ten week class is the perfect opportunity!

Receive instruction on topics like:

Police Officer Selection Process
Patrol Functions / Interview and Interrogations
Police Weaponry
Defensive Tactics
Crime Scene Investigations
K-9 Unit
Traffic Patrol / Accident Investigations / DUI Enforcement
And More....

Classes will be conducted each Tuesday evening between the hours of 7:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m., beginning October 4, 2011 through December 6, 2011. A graduation ceremony for participants will take place during the last evening of the course. This is a free opportunity and is open to all adult Warrenville residents or business owners, age 21 and over.

While applications are accepted for the upcoming Academy dates immediately please consider completing your application now, as space is limited to the first fifteen accepted applications. All applications must be received by no later than September 13, 2011. For a printable version of the application, please visit our website at: www.warrenville.il.us on the Police page. Applications are also available at the front counter of the police station located at 3S245 Warren Avenue, or may be mailed upon request. If you have any questions or would like an application mailed to you, please call (630)393-2131 and ask to speak with Deputy Chief Dave Schar.
