From: Sergeant Brian Melvin
Date: April 30, 2019
Subject: Pension Board Election

The Warrenville Police Pension Board is holding an election for the retired officer seat on the Board. The term is four years in length and is currently being held by John Barberis, who is willing and interested in remaining on the Board. Service on the Board would require the following commitment(s):

- A minimum of (4) consecutive years of service to the board if elected
- Completion of the 32-hour new trustee training course (typically offered one day per month for four months in Hoffman Estates) – this is a one-time requirement and may also be completed online.
- Attendance at the (4) quarterly board meetings (typically Tuesday night at 6:30PM in the Sonny Mack Room)
- Attendance at the IPPFA yearly conference in October (3 days, generally in Lake Geneva)

Please choose one retired candidate from the below list. Mark your choice and send this form to:
