Warrenville, IL 60555

Dear Chief Turano,

On behalf of the Winfield Police Department, I would like to thank and recognize the officers from your department for assisting our department on September 18, 2022 with a missing male juvenile that was later located not far from his home. Your officers assistance in searching the area aided in quick and safe return of the male juvenile.

Working together to keep our communities' safe is a top priority, and the cooperation between departments is very much appreciated. Thank you for the assistance that the Warrenville Police Department provided.

If there is anything the Winfield Police Department can do to reciprocate in the future, please do not hesitate to call upon us.

Respectfully,

David Schar, Chief of Police
Winfield Police Department
