

Proclamation

Honoring Sandy Whitmer on her Retirement as Warrenville Public Library Director

WHEREAS, Sandy Whitmer has served the Warrenville Community as the Library Director for 17 years beginning in 2006; and

WHEREAS, after a long and distinguished career, Sandy intends to retire as Director in February 2023; and

WHEREAS, since her arrival, Sandy has worked tirelessly to enhance the library's offerings to the Community, including access to WiFi, downloadable books, and the Concerts on the Commons series; and

WHEREAS, Sandy was instrumental in improving the look and resources of the library following the $2.5 million dollar interior renovation in 2017; and

WHEREAS, during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, Sandy found new ways to bring library resources to members, including curbside pickup and online library card registration; and

WHEREAS, the City of Warrenville recognizes with respect and admiration the contribution Sandy Whitmer has made to the Community through her involvement with the library and other local volunteer organizations; and

WHEREAS, Sandy exemplifies the best of the City of Warrenville and is a shining example of excellence in the Community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, David L. Brummel, Mayor of the City of Warrenville, do hereby express my sincere appreciation and gratitude for Director Sandy Whitmer's dedication and commitment to the Warrenville Library District, and wish her continued health, happiness and success in the years to come; and gratefully recognize her 17 years of service to the residents of the City of Warrenville and beyond.

GIVEN, under my hand and seal of the City of Warrenville on this 16th day of January, 2023.

David L. Brummel
Mayor
